

ABOUT BISHOP ALAN G. PORTER

Bishop Alan G. Porter was born and raised in Washington, D.C. "Greg" as he is affectionately known, accepted the Lord at an early age and began ministering at thirteen years old. In 1981, Greg Porter made history by becoming the youngest ordained elder in the Church of God in Christ's, Washington, D.C. jurisdiction. He is unquestionably one of the ministers of this generation God has raised up to be on the cutting edge for this end-time move!

Bishop Porter humbly served under the late Pastor Maryland Hinton of the Unity Church of God in Christ. While in the Church of God in Christ denomination, he served in various organizational positions and assignments, which afford him the exposure and contact with diverse church leadership and experience in church administration and management.

Bishop Porter served as a Pastor in the Church of God in Christ from 1986 to 1993. Later that year he founded and established the Abundant Life Worship Center, Inc. in Suitland, Maryland and in 2002 founded and established the Cathedral of Life in Temple Hills, Maryland where he serves as Lead Pastor. He was consecrated in 1996 to the Office of the Bishop by Bishop Ralph L. Dennis, Presiding Prelate, Kingdom Fellowship Covenant Ministries, Inc. He also serves as the Vicar General to the Presiding Prelate and Director of Planning and Logistics for the Kingdom Conference and Fellowship Convocation. He was appointed in 2008 the Executive Pastor of the Greater Salem Church in Charlotte, North Carolina. In 2011, he was installed Senior Pastor of the Greater Salem Church. He is also the General Overseer for the Harambee Ministers Fellowship, providing covering to pastors and ministries and CEO of A.G. Porter Ministries.

Bishop Porter travels extensively, ministering the Word of God with boldness, compassion, clarity, and with a prophetic insight. He has become known as "A Pastor's Pastor" because of the flow of knowledge and wisdom concerning leadership, apostolic authority, and Episcopal order.

Bishop Porter was very active in the ministry while he furthered his education by attending and graduating from Charles Harrison Mason Bible College in Washington, D.C., Prince Georges Community College and University of Maryland at College Park in Maryland, earning an undergraduate degree in business management. He currently is pursuing his Masters of Divinity Degree at Virginia Union Seminary in Richmond, VA.

Bishop Porter resides in Charlotte, North Carolina with his wife Elder Annette R. Porter and has been featured in the 4th edition of the Who's Who In Black Charlotte magazine. Despite all of his accomplishments, Bishop Porter remains grounded in His faith, committed to His Kingdom assignment and a man of humility.
